#6 Statement of the purpose of the corporation

The objectives and purposes of this Society are:

- (a) to provide a forum for people interested in the ancestry, culture and history of ethnic Germans from Volhynia (modern day northwestern Ukraine) and Russian Poland (modern day central and eastern Poland), and also to assist them with other neighboring regions which have migrational connections such as Kiev and Podolia in Ukraine, and East and West Prussia, Pomerania, Posen, Silesia and other regions of the former German Empire.
- (b) to promote and undertake genealogical research of such people and their descendants while living in Europe and subsequent migration to the western hemisphere;
- (c) to collect and preserve material relevant to genealogical research and studies such as books, manuscripts, maps, photographs and microfilms;
- (d) to encourage and instruct Members in the methods of genealogical research;
- (e) to publish or cause to be published and distributed books, journals, newsletters and other printed material to carry out the objectives of the Society and to preserve the heritage of these peoples;
- (f) to organize and maintain an Internet web site where Members may access information on the Society and where the research of the Society and its Members may be made available;
- (g) to cooperate with educational institutions, other societies, researchers, and other organizations or individuals engaged in genealogical research or studies;
- (h) to raise funds, accept grants, donations and other gifts in accordance with the goals of the Society and without any gain for its Members;
